DAYTON, Ohio, November 4, 1968 --- The University Arts Series at the University of Dayton will present The Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra directed by Dr. Paul Katz, Sunday, November 10, at 8:15 in the UD Fieldhouse. The program will also feature Indian sarod player Ashish Khan.

Ashish Khan is India's youngest musician to tour the United States. His grandfather is the famous Allauddin Khan, often called "the father of Indian instrumental music." Since his first public concert in 1953 at the age of fourteen, Ashish Khan has traveled and performed all over the world. His most recent United States appearance was at the Hollywood Bowl in 1967 at the legendary "Festival from India", under the direction of his uncle, Ravi Shankar.
